

Coherence between DARM and GS13s at frequencies associated with ISI suspension

More coherence between the GS13s at BS and HAM5 than between floor monitors at those locations: are we injecting the noise onto the tables?

Supporting the self-inflicted interpretation is the greater coherence with HAM5 than HAM6

