

Potential EX viewports to open for damping are indicated by arrows

The corner visible through the viewport is this corner

View through viewport

Damper would be installed at the side near viewport rather than at the front as shown

